NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

J. M. Samuels, 86, died at Pineville. Clay Bottom's house near Mitchellsburg burned, causing a loss of $2,000. C. C. Thompson has been appointed postmaster at Ingram, Bell county. John T. Coke has been appointed postmaster at Tyrone, Mercer county. Daniel King, an aged citizen of Flat Rock, was killed by a C. S. train last week. Col. Alfred Williams, a Mexican veteran, and ex-Confederate, died in Madison. Mrs. John G. Masters, who was a Miss Logan, died at the Lexington Lunatic Asylum. The Progressive Home Journal says that the blackberry crop in Pulaski will be almost a total failure. The jailer of Adair took his family to a picnic Saturday and his four prisoners broke jail and absconded. The store with postoffice in connection of John Royalty, at Tablow, in Mercer, was destroyed by fire. Loss, $2,000. B. T. Simmons died at Danville Friday night of paralysis, leaving a wife and five children. He formerly lived at Richmond. Phil Chinn's bucket shop at Lexington was closed a few days ago, when $6,000 was called for by the local backers of a local horse. The U. S. court has granted Receiver Felton permission to buy eight new locomotives at a cost of $98,000 for the Cincinnati Southern. The degree team of the Somerset I. O. O. F. lodge presented "Capt." R. G. Hall with a handsome gold headed walking cane, in testimony of his valuable services to the order. The postoffice at Barboursville was broken into and $20 worth of stamps and postals taken. A registered letter was opened, but the money was not molested. William McNeal, 42, of Pittsburgh, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. He leaves a wife and several children. The cause for the deed is not known. Parker Meece, for breaking into Cul Vaught's residence and stealing $1.40, was given two years at Somerset. Ed Cotter and Milt Crawford were fined $500 each for usurpation of office. R. G. Hall and other business men of Somerset are taking steps toward holding a fair in September. It is probable that only stock from mountain counties will be permitted to contest for premiums. The arrest of Leon Lewis in Madison county for selling teachers' examination questions develops the fact that these papers have been peddled extensively in Madison, Estill, Jackson and Rockcastle counties. Fire at Lawrenceburg destroyed a church and a number of business houses and dwellings. Loss about $25,000; insurance, $5,000. The other buildings burned were the carriage, blacksmith and paint shop of J. Van Arsdell, the dwelling of A. J. Rowens, Spencer's feed store and meat shop, the dwelling of J. Naves, the Christian church, J. J. Sweeney's brass shop, Martin's saloon, Mrs. Sue Washington's boarding house, J. Barnes' confectionery, G. Stevens' blacksmith shop, W. Morgan's barber shop and Mrs. Strauther's dwelling.

HUSTONVILLE.

The Baptist church is being improved with a much needed coat of paint. Every one is looking forward with much interest to the fair to be held here July 26-28, and Saxton's band will be one of the principal features. It is an evident fact that the "Rough Riders" can not play ball. Our boys gained another glorious victory here Saturday by a score of 23 to 11. Bishop and Cannitz battery for Hustonville, and Geer and DeBord for Stanford. Quite a number of our young people attended the party at Miss Eugenia Ware's Friday night, given in honor of her guests, Misses Offutt and Maxey, and Messrs. Scudder and Offutt. It was quite an enjoyable affair and it was with reluctance that they bade the charming hostess good-night. Mrs. Charles T. Cora, of Harrodsburg, and Mrs. J. F. Witherspoon, of Talmage, are visiting Mrs. John W. Drye. Miss Camille Hopper leaves in a few days to visit Miss Anne Cooke Huffman at Lexington. Miss Margaret Bridges, of Louisville, is the guest of Mrs. L. F. Steele. Mrs. Jane Cloyd, E. S. Powell, and Miss Bettie, George Carpenter, Misses Anna Crowe, Mary and Angie Carpenter leave today to attend the Christian Endeavor convention at Detroit, Mich. A Chicago dispatch conveys the information that Butcher August Becker, who is under indictment for having murdered his wife some time ago, and who dismembered and boiled her remains immediately thereafter, is likely to escape conviction for his crime on account of a technicality in that he was indicted for the murder of "Elizabeth" Becker, and his wife's true name having been "Theresa." The case was nolle prossed upon this discovery.

BRIEF NEWS NOTATION.

Hanson's noted Orphan's Brigade. Scalpers in Cincinnati have to go. Judge Jackson perpetually enjoins them from dealing in cut rate tickets. Augusta has secured a stove foundry to cost $30,000. It will employ 100 men and will be in operation within 45 days. Clarence Williams, colored, was given the death penalty at Paris for the murder of Josie Tillman, also colored. Willie Vermillion, son of the postmaster at Whitesburg, is under arrest charged with tampering with registered letters. The flood in the Brazos river is the biggest in 14 years, and hundreds of people in the valley have fled to Waco for refuge. Great damage was done in South, Central and West Texas by heavy rains. Many railroad bridges were washed away. Charles M. Murphy, of the Kings County Wheelmen, rode a mile on a bicycle, paced by a locomotive, in 57 4/5 seconds. A silver dollar made in 1804 sold at Chicago Friday for $1,000 and you can get a like amount for another one if you can find it. Bradshaw's says: In the volume of business done the first half of 1899 will certainly rank higher than the best hitherto experienced. Charles Scott, colored, of Baltimore, located his mother in Louisville with the aid of the police. They were separated in slave times. Thos. W. Price, aged 70, is to be hung at Farmville, Va., tomorrow, for the murder of a young man in his own house over a trivial matter. During the fiscal year just closed the Philadelphia mint turned out $49,991,170 in gold and $9,918,311.65 in silver and $356,910.14 in nickels and cents. At Charleston, W. Va., a Negro brute cut his wife's throat and scalped one of his children to death, while drunk. He skipped, but is being hunted. While feeding a threshing machine in Bracken county, John Cass was caught by the separator, pulled into the machine and his body torn to pieces. At Greensburg George Murphy was sentenced to five years in State prison for robbing the Adams Express Company's safe at that place last month of $1,100. General Kemper, of Virginia, consul to Amoy, China, under the first Cleveland administration, died at his home in Alexandria. He was a Confederate veteran. Thirty minutes before Switchman C. I. Hurt, of the L. & N., was to quit railroading for good, he was run over by a train while on duty at Louisville, and fatally injured. A 13 year old boy, near Athens, Ala., who a few months ago killed his father and escaped prosecution for lack of evidence, has since murdered his sister and mother and fled. Robert Welsh, a Chicago gambler, shot himself through the heart at a poker table when he lost his last dollar. His last words were: "Boys for God's sake quit playing cards." At Lawder, Ill., a mob of strikers fired into a train containing 47 Negro non-union miners and killed a colored woman. The Negroes were taken to the mines in charge of guards. A syndicate, headed by Eugene Zimmerman, of Cincinnati, has purchased the Birmingham and Atlantic railroad, the Talladega furnace and 3,000 acres of land around Talladega, Ala. Mrs. Lizzie Ellis, of Farmville, Va., aged 17 years, killed her 16 months' old child by giving it laudanum and then attempted suicide. She said she had been deserted by her husband. Arthur F. Carey circled the globe on his wheel. He left Lynn, Mass., three years ago and returned Friday. His record shows 12,500 miles ridden on one wheel, and 18,000 miles covered by sea. Collector Comingore, of the Covington district, was jailed for contempt of court for refusing to answer the circuit court of Carroll, which demanded to know the amount of whisky a certain firm had in a ware house.

R. G. Irwin, of New York, will succeed H. B. Plant, deceased, as president of the Plant System of Railroads. Damage from floods in the Brazos valley, is estimated at $4,000,000. The loss of life is not believed to be very great. Fire at Bowling Green destroyed Potter's Opera House and burned a number of other buildings. The loss is nearly $60,000. State Senator Wm. Flannagan, who was also Commonwealth's Attorney for Powhattan county, was shot and killed at Powhattan court-house, Va., by W. G. Pilkinton over politics. The first anniversary of the battle of San Juan was celebrated at Fort Thomas by the unveiling of memorial tablets to the 6th infantry. The principal addresses were by Maj. Gen. Miles and Senator Foraker. At the National Social and Political Conference at Buffalo no applause greeted the mention of the name of Admiral Dewey. The Rev. W. H. Thomas, of Colorado, condemned the war in the Philippines. Franklin county sold to N. W. Harris & Co., of Chicago, $130,000 worth of refunding 4 per cent. bonds at $8,000 premium. The bonds refunded were those issued in July 1889, to help build the Kentucky Midland railroad. Near Raleigh, Union county, Miss Hallie Perrine, aged 23, shot her 8-year old nephew and then killed herself. The boy is not dead yet. Miss Perrine had been despondent, and was thought to be temporarily insane. The town of Union City, Ill., was the scene of a pitched battle Friday night between striking miners and nonunion men who had been imported. There was a general exchange of shots, and the torch was applied to the miners' houses. A New York paper says the biggest American giant, Herr Lewis Wilkins, of Kentucky, came over from Germany on the largest steamship in service, the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, of the North German Lloyd line. He is 7 1/2 feet tall and weighs about a quarter of a ton. Collis P. Huntington has bought a tract of land of 1,350 acres in Hanover county, Va., where, at his expense, a well-equipped building, with the latest modern improvements, is to be erected for the confinement of juvenile offenders of the Negro race.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

The annual convention of the Boyle County Sunday School Association will be held at the Christian church in Danville, July 13. The annual camp meeting at High Bridge begins Friday, July 21, and continues 10 days. Many distinguished divines are on the program to preach. W. H. Shanks, who has made a most excellent superintendent of the Christian church Sunday school for four or five years, resigned Sunday and James Richard Bush was elected in his stead. The selection was a most satisfactory one. According to figures given by the Methodist Christian Advocate, of New York, the Northern Methodist increased 31,112 during the year, while the Southern Methodist decreased 9,000. The Baptists made the largest increase, 88,189. The Cumberland Presbyterians gained 4,983 and the Southern Presbyterians 5,381. Mr. Editor.—Will you please announce in the columns of your paper that Rev. I. M. Yonan, of Persia, will give an address at the Presbyterian church on foreign missions Wednesday, July 5, at 8 P. M. Mrs. Yonan will meet with the ladies at 4 P. M. Everybody is most cordially invited to the evening service; and all ladies, especially of the societies of the other churches, are invited to the afternoon service. S. M. Rankin. When the Louisville Presbytery called on Henry Raubold, a member of the Glasgow church, to answer for running a tipping house, he sent a communication asking that the matter be settled by striking his name and that of his wife from the church book. It was held by the Presbytery that such action would be against the church law, so Raubold was cited to appear on July 3, with notice that if he does not appear he will be dealt with for his alleged contumacy. Elder Joseph Bailou preached a most excellent sermon at the Christian church Sunday morning. He took occasion to commend the action of the church in giving its pastor, Elder F. W. Allen, a leave of absence, and in that connection said that it had been his desire for the last quarter of a century to get a vacation, that he might spend a couple of weeks preaching to his relatives and friends in the mountains of North Carolina, but that he had never had the opportunity. Editor J. M. Allen's visit to the Louisville convention made him see double. He says a lady sent him some raspberries on his return that measured 24 inches in circumference. John Wanamaker's advertising bills for the year foot up to $625,000.

LANCASTER.

Messrs. J. M. Duncan and George Smith, Jr., are at Cumberland Falls. On Saturday, T. C. Guley's barn, some farming implements and provisions were burned. Cause unknown. Loss $300; insurance $200. On Sunday Ship Estes' barn and a horse burned. Loss not reported. Mormons are preaching near Hattsville, but we have enough of creeds to save all mankind. If the heart is right, without adopting one which might ultimately disrupt society. Messrs. William Burton and Charles Barker have bought Rice Benge's livery horses and vehicles, and will run a livery, feed and sale stable at the same stand, opposite the Simpson House. It is said that the railroad surveyors are finding it difficult to approach this city on account of its elevation, the grade required being one foot to 100 feet, but a route will be found that comes within the requirements. Many friends of Capt. James A. Doty are anxious to have him run for the legislature and they assert that he can be induced to become a candidate for the nomination. He has been prominent in war and is one of our most intelligent and popular citizens. He is identified with the interests of the people and they would be fairly treated should he announce and become their representative. The Stone and Hardin men suggest a combination for the nomination of a candidate for representative in order to help bring out a full vote in November. They say that they can agree on the organization and the distribution of spoils, all along the line. There is plenty of timber, such as Capt. I. M. Dunn, Col. J. W. Miller, Geo. Higginbotham, Capt. Mike Salter, Henry Patterson, &c. Don't all speak at once. I was in Danville and witnessed the ovation paid to Judge R. J. Breckinridge on his return from the Louisville convention. The noble old hero made a speech expressing his appreciation. He gives much strength to the ticket, and the INTERIOR JOURNAL deserves much credit for entering him in the race by first mentioning his name as a suitable man for attorney general. True, devoted and undying love found its consummation last Thursday evening in the marriage of Mr. H. C. Hamilton, Western Union Telegraph Agent, to Miss Laura E., the lovely daughter of Mr. C. D. Powell. They had been lovers for some time and, desiring to avoid the notoriety of a public wedding, went to the residence of Elder Jesse Walden and took the vows, Elder R. M. Campbell officiating. They were then received at the home of the bride. Their many friends join in extending the best wishes. Squire W. H. Kinnaird, aged 76 years, who has been a bank cashier in this city for 42 years and who has been in that service longer than any other man in the State, closed his long and honorable career by resigning last week on account of age and declining health. Mr. S. C. Denny, who has been teller of that bank, the old National, for a number of years, was elected cashier. J. Pleece Robinson Jr., assistant cashier, and Robt. Embry book-keeper. They are young men of excellent business qualifications and have been trained for the work. Now that the din and smoke of the battle in the party has passed away and the democratic party has put out an invincible ticket, it behooves every democrat to go to work and help to roll up an old time majority. The cry of combination should be hushed, as the defeated candidates would have resorted to the same means, if they could, to secure the nomination. We should ignore the assertion of the republicans to the effect that the Goebel law will count them out, if they have a majority. This will not be necessary and, if it were done, the republicans would only experience what we did in 1876, when they counted our president out. It is rather a remarkable coincidence that on the 21 day of June 40 years ago, Gov. William Owsley, of Garrard county, ordered the State troops to Clay county to quell the war between the Baker and White factions, and that on the 21 day of June of the present year, Gov. William O. Bradley, of Garrard county, ordered out the troops to preserve the peace among the descendants of those feudists of two decades ago.—Ex.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is, by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. J. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. No matter who had been nominated at Louisville there would have been some kickers. That is always to be expected, especially from people, who speak under the first twinge of disappointment, without waiting for calmer reflection. Such people are usually emotional, however, and soon get over their troubles. In this instance there is little reason for a kick. Our standard bearer has been nominated by a majority of the votes of the regular constituted authorities, and they have given us a ticket that is as irreproachable as it will prove invincible. Those who are disposed to kick do themselves harm as well as the cause, since the unscrupulous enemy, aided by a more unscrupulous foe masquerading as democrats, distort every kick into a revolt, every idle remark into a monstrous rebellion. We do not believe there is opposition of consequence in the democratic party to Mr. Goebel, and we hope the few who are disposed to raise a contention will recant as quickly as possible and march in the forefront to a victory that is as sure as the gospel is true. We were never surer of anything in our lives than that Goebel and his excellent running mates will win and by a majority that will forever take Kentucky out of the doubtful column. Stop carping, jump in the band wagon and help us run the majority to 50,000.

It was noised abroad in republican and other meaner papers that our old friend, Dr. John D. Woods, of the Bowling Green Courier, had kicked out of the traces because Mr. Goebel had downed his man Hardin. We couldn't believe that that prince of democrats would depart from the straight and narrow path in his old age, after a life time of service for the party, but nevertheless we were much relieved when his paper came and we read this concluding paragraph of a lengthy editorial: "Under no state of case would The Courier have supported a republican, and it would have greatly preferred either Stone or Hardin to the nominee, but under the present unfavorable conditions choice is only left to The Courier to support Bill Taylor or Bill Goebel, and without asking leave for time to retire and consult, it goes with Goebel." And thus another campaign lie is nailed.

A HITHERTO unknown insect in that section has arisen to make the lives of Washington people miserable. A bugologist pronounces it the melanolestes picipes and its peculiarity is that its bite is confined to the lips of its victims, thereby causing it to be called the kissing bug. It works only at night and when ever it inserts its fang into a lip great pain and much swelling result and there is no more sleeping that night. Many people have had to be taken to the hospital for treatment, so severe is the suffering occasioned. The Jersey mosquito's bite is pleasant compared with that of the kissing bug, which is more feared than an army with banners.

"TORY GIN" TAYLOR carried a big batch of counties again Saturday, ranning his vote up, according to his calculation, to 935, which is nearly 100 more than necessary to nominate him for governor on the first ballot. Notwithstanding this Mr. Stone, who has some 200 votes, is quoted as expressing himself with confidence that he will be the nominee, but the basis of his confidence doesn't seem well-grounded. The 'tory gin' seems to have the call.

The fellows who have been prescribing it for others must return to the fold, if at all, in that sackcloth and ashes uniform. "D— a bolter, anyhow!"—Louisville Times. So say we and if it is necessary to make it more emphatic you can put the usual prefix.

Gov. Roosevelt says he is not a candidate for president in 1900 and wants to see McKinley elected.

BILL OWENS, of Scott, is making a big fuss and drawing some passing attention to himself by vociferating that he will vote the republican ticket and advise all his friends to do so, because Goebel as he alleges, didn't vote fairly with Stone. Billy Breckinridge, whom he defeated for Congress a few years ago, is also vociferating and it is amusing to see the two try to stand on the same platform. The democratic party can give Owens to the republicans as it has already given Breckinridge, and then not feel the loss. Goebel is going to be elected as sure as the November election comes and then these malcontents will feel like they have unnecessarily made fools of themselves.

WHILE in Cincinnati Saturday some unknown person imposed on Gov. Bradley, who issued orders after getting a telephone message from one of the State officials, holding several companies of State guards in readiness to proceed yesterday to Manchester. The message stated that serious trouble in Clay county could only be averted by the presence of the soldiers. The action of the governor was commendably prompt, but fortunately he discovered the trick in time to revoke the order before the troops moved. It is to be hoped that the identity of the miserable fakir will be determined and condign punishment meted to him.

SOME of the newspapers that supported the other candidates are making wry faces at the ticket, but the very large majority of them accept it without reserve and promise a loyal support. There was never anything else expected of those that supported Goebel than that they would support the nominee no matter who he was. It goes without saying that they always support the democratic ticket.

THE Courier-Journal makes the unequivocal statement that the Louisville & Nashville uses its secret service fund to buy newspapers and employ freebooters to carry its point in partisan politics. If it be true, it is a grievous fault and grievously will it atone for it. The L. & N. never had a better friend than this paper and it will continue to be its friend, if it will stick to its business and let politics alone.

THE republican State convention will be held at Lexington on the 12th, but the democrats having made a ticket that is foreordained to win, but little interest is felt in its action. The nominees will certainly prove lambs for the slaughter this time.

CELEBRATORS of the glorious 4th have additional cause to hurrah today. It was just a year ago yesterday that Cervera's fleet was sent to the bottom of the sea at Santiago, breaking the backbone of the Spanish war.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

The government deficit for the fiscal year is $88,875,989.

Gen. Hardin is at Charlottesville, Va. resting from his labors.

Let no man "create a diversion, raise a false issue, or plaster over the Calcazo platform with foreign matter."—Winchester Democrat.

Attorney General Crow says the 73 ousted insurance companies can not resume business in Missouri except by permission of the court.

A formal call for a meeting of the Democratic National Committee was issued by Acting Chairman Stone, of Missouri, to be held at Chicago July 20.

Five hundred Boyd county democrats serenaded Judge S. W. Hager, nominee for State treasurer, at his home at Ashland and pledged their support to the State ticket.

It has been noted that the present governor of South Carolina, is an editor, his private secretary is an editor, and that his advisory board is largely made up of editors from all over the State.

Republican officials at Frankfort say the rumors of an extra legislative session to repeal the election law are without foundation, and Gov. Bradley says no petitions relative to the law have been filed.

Editor Sam J. Roberts, of the Lexington Leader, has been summoned to appear at the October term of the Clay county circuit court, in Manchester, to answer a charge of criminally libelling Sheriff B. P. White.

The mayor of Pikeville, J. M. Bailey, got too much bitters at Louisville, where he went as a delegate, and sat down on the street, where he removed his shoes and fell asleep. When he awoke the shoes and a small diamond were gone.

Trusts have worked a hardship on drummers as well as everybody else. The president of the Commercial Travelers' National Association estimates that 35,000 have been thrown out of work through the formation of trusts and that 25,000 others have had their salaries reduced.

We really have been for Goebel all the time. You see it was this way: We voted for the third reading of Hardin and Stone in order to jump on them on final passage and kick the stuffing out of them, just like Mr. Stone was lying in ambush for the gold bond bill.—Cynthiana Democrat.

The esteemed Post is so badly rattled by the result of the recent democratic convention that it calls on Gov. Bradley to convene the Legislature for the express purpose of saving Kentucky to Bryan. When, by the way, did the Post become Mr. Bryan's organ in this State?—Louisville Commercial.

Judge McKee Duncan, brother-in-law of Gov. Bradley, may be given the republican nomination for attorney general in order to promote harmony.

In short, from whatever angle the ticket is viewed it satisfies. Inspected from before, from behind, from the side, above or below, it comes up to every requirement, and, this being so—and who can say otherwise?—democracy will surely come in November into its own again in Kentucky.—Louisville Times.

The L. & N. Dispatch and the L. & N. Post have bolted, as everybody expected they would. Let the L. & N. sheets go. They have no weight among democrats. But the L. & N. should take that Dispatch stock off the hands of 2,000 Kentucky democrats who can no longer be expected to sit still and see that double liability piled upon them.—Owensboro Messenger.

In his published statement Capt. Stone claims that Mr. Goebel had promised to make him the nominee of the convention for governor. Mr. Goebel denies that such an agreement was made, and states that the only compact between himself and Capt. Stone was in writing, and went only as far as the temporary organization. This agreement, Mr. Goebel said, could be shown by Capt. Stone whenever he desired, and would settle any dispute as to the matter.

"What will you make the principal issue of the campaign?" asked a Cincinnati Enquirer man of Senator Goebel. "The effort of the L. & N. railroad to control the politics of Kentucky," he responded. "That corporation sought to select the democratic nominee, and failing in that will endeavor to elect a republican governor. I shall be glad of an opportunity to measure swords with them politically. They will oppose me, and I will oppose them. The L. & N. railroad company will be out of Kentucky politics when this campaign is over."

In an interview on the Stone charges of bad faith, Urey Woodson says: "I am sure that the difficulty is due to some misunderstanding. I was the chief, and, in fact, the only, intermediary between Senator Goebel and Capt. Stone. I arranged several interviews between them, and was present at all their meetings. Though the whole field was covered in their conversations, there was never one reference to the question of the nomination. That was left to be an open fight. I can say that the written agreement between Stone and Goebel referred only to the organization of the convention. There was absolutely nothing in it about a division of votes."

No paper fought harder for Hardin than the Glasgow News, but it gracefully falls into line for the ticket. It says: There is no reason why any democrat should feel called upon to refuse to support the ticket that has just been nominated, and we believe every supporter of either Hardin or Stone will give to the nominees that same cordial and hearty support he would have given had the man of his choice received the nomination. The time for fighting among ourselves has passed. Let us now direct our guns against the common enemy and prepare for the great fight that is to come in November.

The issue to be forced upon the people of Kentucky in the State canvass which will soon be upon us, seems from the present outlook to foreshadow the democratic party versus the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company. The republican party will be merely a side issue. It will cut but a second rate figure. It will be potential only as a dependent of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company. That company spent thousands of dollars to beat Goebel in the late convention. It will spend ten thousands of dollars to beat him at the polls. Its opposition made Goebel the nominee. Its opposition will elect him. * This is distinctly a young man's movement; and, with an eloquent and brilliant old stager like Robert J. Breckinridge to steady it, nothing can beat it.—Courier Journal.

MISS SUE WOODS returned from a six-weeks' visit to friends in Winchester, Millersburg and other places.

MRS. BETTIE MCKINNEY, Misses Annie Dunn and Annie McKinney are enjoying the Chautauqua at Lexington.

MRS. S. W. DUNCAN and children, of Dallas, Texas, arrived Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Newland.

MRS. W. H. SHANKS, of Stanford, is visiting her parents, Col. and Mrs. Thomas E. Baldwin.—Richmond Register.

MR. A. A. MCKINNEY loses out in the bank examiner appointment. Deboe's man Garrett, of Princeton, was appointed.

MR. AND MRS. W. R. MANIER and family, of Nashville, arrived Saturday night to spend some time at Hon. J. S. Owsley, Sr.'s.

MR. AND MRS. S. M. WILHITE and children, of Louisville, are here with friends and relatives and everybody is glad to see them.

THE young people tell us that eight swell parties are yet to be pulled off in this community, which has already had more than its quota.

MRS. JOHN JACKSON, of Franklin, Ind., and Mrs. Hartford Veatch, of Louisville, sisters of Mrs. John A. Allen, are here at her bedside.

MISS BESSIE AND LUCIE MENEFEE have returned from Cedar Springs, S. C., where they have been teaching in the Deaf and Dumb College.

MR. E. P. OWSLEY, of Columbus, Ga., has joined his wife at the Myers House. He tells us that his bank, the 4th National, declared 3 per cent. and had $6,000 for expenses and surplus.

MESDAMES MARY JONES and W. W. Lyon, of the Mt. Salem section, honored us with a visit and placed us under obligations by carrying the I. J.'s to its thousands of readers in the West End.

HUSTONVILLE is so filled with clever people, it is hard to tell which is the cleverest, but if George D. Weatherford is not entitled to the distinction we are mistaken. We are more than ever indebted to him for courtesies.

LEVI ELDER, of Crab Orchard, was here a few days ago buying goods and chattels previous to going to house-keeping. Realizing that the INTERIOR JOURNAL is one of the most important things in a happy household he of course ordered it sent to him.

A WABASH, IND., paper says "the climate is not suitable to Mr. J. E. Carson and he decided to move his family to Northern Alabama. Mr. Carson moved with his family to this city from Kentucky a little over a year ago, during which time they have made many friends, who regret their departure very much, but wish them success in their new home."

MISS EDYTH YOUNG GRIGGS, after a delightful month's visit to Miss Isabelle Bailey, left for her home in Ottawa, Ill., yesterday. Possessed of every attribute of womanly loveliness, it is little wonder that she made hosts of friends here and that she carried away at least two masculine hearts, whose owners refuse to be comforted.

MRS. J. S. WELLS and daughter, of Danville, are spending the heated term at Walnut Flat.

A NUMBER of our young people attended the opening hop at Crab Orchard Springs and report a fine time.

STEPHEN F. BLANKENSHIP and daughters, Misses Eliza and Maude, of Kingsville, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Warren.

OVER $600 in special premiums have been secured for the Hustonville fair, which begins July 26.

TIMBER LAND WANTED.—Any one having timber or timber land for sale will hear of a purchaser by consulting A. C. Sine, Stanford, Ky.

THE Hustonville Fair, July 26-28, will give $150 in premiums, which are liberal in all the rings, $150 in saddle stakes and same in roadster ring.

LIBERAL.—In addition to their great low price clearance sale Severance & Sons are giving away during July some handsome china. See show window.

THE tax books are now ready and your taxes are due. Make it a point to come prepared to pay at July court as my time is limited. Sam M. Owens, Sheriff.

BLACKBERRIES are being brought to town and sold at 30 cents per water bucket. Mail Carrier J. G. Martin brought in a load from Kingsville yesterday afternoon.

HURT.—T. S. Young, the walnut log man, fell from a car he was loading at the depot Saturday and sustained injuries that will lay him up for some time. He is thought to be hurt internally.

WHILE in Hustonville Saturday, James Fry showed us through his large and well arranged store. He has nearly everything and a compartment for each line of goods. No wonder he advertises. He's got something to advertise.

THE champions met a Waterloo at Hustonville Saturday afternoon, when they were defeated 23 to 13. They took a weak team though and that accounts for it. George Florence, the crack catcher, was sick and other good players didn't go.

THE writer had occasion the other day to take a watch out of his safe that had been there two years, when to his surprise, it marked the exact time of the town clock at that minute. If we could add that the watch was running the incident would be more remarkable, but nobody would believe it.

THE next session of the Lincoln County Medical Society will be held at Crab Orchard on the 11th. Dr. W. J. Edmiston will read a paper on "Gastroenteritis" and Dr. I. S. Wesley on "Etiology, Pathology and Treatment of Carbuncles." J. C. Barker, M. D. secretary.

In the language of Robert R. Gentry, some democrats have "scabs on their heads" because Goebel, rather than Hardin or Stone is the nominee for governor. Mr. Gentry further and truthfully adds that these scabs will either fall off or be knocked off by the owners of the heads before voting time comes and all will be merry by the time the booths and ballots are prepared.

SOME prevaricator telegraphs the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune, rep., that great dissatisfaction exists here with the ticket nominated at Louisville and that democrats will scratch Goebel right and left. The statement is untrue and made for effect. A few men who claim to be democrats may refuse to vote for the head of the ticket, but all real democrats will take pleasure in honoring the man who has demonstrated his ability to lead.

THAT people sow too much wheat to the acre, Mr. John Bright has always contended and now he furnishes proof of the correctness of his theory. He says: Last fall I received from the State department of agriculture 100 pounds of Michigan Fultz seed wheat. I sowed on one acre 60 pounds, or 1 bushel of it, and on 14 acres 40 pounds, the result was I had 30 bushels from the acre sown 60 pounds to the acre and 32 bushels from the 14 acres sown 32 pounds to the acre. So we can reasonably conclude that 45 pounds, or three pecks per acre, is sufficient to produce a good crop.

THE Twice-a-Week INTERIOR JOURNAL is only $1 a year cash. Remember that.

IN connection with my building and loan investment business, I have added real estate and will be glad to wait on those who want to buy or sell property. Call on me. J. C. Hemphill, Lancaster.

THE Hon. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt writes: I shall be down on noon train the 4th, and after festal truce of one hour, the fierce attack of the American eagle upon the British lion will be resumed.

A TIRED little Stanford tot, who was accustomed to end his prayer of "Now I lay me down to sleep" with "Bess papa, bess mamma," &c., couldn't hold his eyes open any longer the other night so closed with "and bess danpa and all dose kind er things."

THE Lincoln county republicans will hold their convention to send delegates to the State convention on county court day. They will likely instruct for Mr. Stone, on account of his being in the district, but it looks now like it will be purely complimentary. Taylor has the nomination nailed down.

A FEW nights ago, Judge W. E. Varner's hen house was entered and 25 frying chickens stolen. He put Marshal Newland on the trail of the thief and he soon had Will Lee in tow. Lee, who has the reputation of a chicken thief, claims that he bought them from another Negro at 10c each, but doesn't know the Negro's name. He was lodged in jail and after spending the glorious 4th therein, will have his trial tomorrow.

JUDGE CARSON, after hearing two witnesses on the perjury charges against Gabriel Elkin, promptly dismissed the case, as he says it was plainly the work of spite. Mr. Elkin swore in the seduction case against Tom Rice, that he saw the girl sitting in his lap on a certain occasion, and although Rice denies, Elkin continues to swear that his statement is true. Under the circumstances it looks decidedly like much ado about nothing.

RUNAWAY.—Deputy Sheriff W. Logan Wood had a warm time with a runaway horse Sunday. The animal became unmanageable and in Mr. Wood's effort to hold him the bit broke. It then took out at a break neck speed and Mr. W. crawled from the buggy to its back, but in a few seconds he was thrown to the ground. The horse continued to run until he got loose from the buggy which was badly torn up. The clever gentleman escaped unhurt.

JIM FRYE, of Hustonville, tells this good one on Jim Coulter, of Middleburg. One day when Mr. Coulter was at Liberty a very young man with a very bald head came into the hotel. He was a stranger to everybody and Mr. Coulter by way of commencing a conversation said to him: "My friend, I am not asking to guy you, but I would like to know how it comes that so young a man is so bald." "It was in this way," he replied, "when my time to get hair came, they said there was none left but red, so I told them I didn't believe I cared for any." As Coulter has a very red head, he was satisfied to let the conversation drop and get out to escape the laugh and jeers that the crowd fired at him.

THE Lincoln County National Bank earned nearly 9 per cent. gross the last six months. Cashier J. B. Owsley is to be congratulated on so good a report under adverse circumstances.

Cashier J. W. Hocker, of the Hustonville National Bank, comes up smiling with a 4 per cent. semi-annual dividend. He made 54 per cent. net.

THE Commercial Bank of Liberty, G. A. Prewitt, cashier, earned $2,032.47 the last six months, which is over 10 per cent. on its capital, but it had $3,231.61 surplus and an average of $40,000 deposits. See report in another column.

The First National earned over 6 per cent. gross and had $3,039.77 to pay expenses and carry to surplus. The report under call from the comptroller appears elsewhere in this issue.

MARRIED IN THE PIKE.—About 10 o'clock the other night Judge James P. Bailey was aroused from his slumbers, which he was enjoying after attending the Louisville convention, by a rap at the door. On answering the call he found Finley Campbell with marriage license in hand and the judge was told what the trouble was. Slipping on his clothes in a hurry, while his wife arranged the parlor for the ceremony, Judge Bailey extended a cordial invitation to come in and have the knot tied. The bride-to-be was Miss Lizzie DeBord, of the Sautley section, and she and Mr. Campbell had agreed that it would be more romantic to marry in their buggy, so in a most impressive ceremony they were then and there bound together hand and heart. Congratulations from the Bailey family were in order, after which Mr. and Mrs. Campbell drove off as happy as mortals ever get. It was the first time Mrs. Bailey had ever heard her husband marry a couple and she was so well pleased that the judge got almost as much congratulation as the couple that had just been married.

LOST.—Big, black Poland China boar. Reward for return to Mark Hardin.

JULY 1st is past, come and settle your account; I need the money. Mrs. Kate Dudderar.

TO FARMERS.—I will buy your wheat at market price, to be delivered at Moreland or McKinney. D. S. Carpenter, Hustonville.

THE Hustonville Fair, which will be held July 26 and the two following days, has engaged Saxton's great band to make music, a feature which alone will be worth the price of admission.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL'S float in the procession today may not be the finest in the lot, but all will agree with us that the handsome young lady in it will more than make up for any short coming there may be.

REV. A. J. PIKE, one of the best democrats in Rockcastle, passed up on yesterday's train. In answer to our question as to how he liked the ticket he said: "Fine, and our democrats will support it. I was a Stone man but I'm for Goebel now, all right."

INDEPENDENCE DAY dawned beautifully and brightly, with the mercury down to 62, and the indications at this writing, 8 A. M., are that the weather will be all that the most patriotic could wish, while it is a foregone conclusion that the celebration will be a success. Besides the brass bands, the singers, the oratorical and declamatory exercises at the court-house, the procession of floats and other vehicles will form an interesting spectacle. Among those who will have floats are Severance & Sons, Higgins & McKinney, Beazley Bros., J. C. McClary, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, with the prettiest of young ladies and the handsomest soldier, W. W. Withers, Warren & Shanks, Beazley & Carter, I. M. Bruce, John H. Meier, J. H. Baughman & Co., A. B. Florence, Wm. Hamilton, Ed Wilkinson, Louisville Store, B. K. Wearan & Son, Cook & Farmer, J. T. Jones, Lincoln Democrat, Craig & Hocker.

Postmaster J. C. Florence will be chief marshal, with Messrs. H. J. McRoberts and Harvey Helm assistants. Mayor J. N. Menefee and Judge J. P. Bailey will lead the procession.

Procession will move promptly at 10 o'clock from a point near the railroad on Danville Avenue.

The following amusing races will occur this afternoon on court-house square and in front of it:

Barrel race; open to white men and boys. Premium, derby hat, by John P. Jones.

Wheelbarrow race; open to colored men and boys. Premium, Washington pie, by John H. Meier.

Ugliest man, decided by committee of three. Premium by Beazley & Carter.

100-yard foot race; for boys under 14. Elegant watch chain by Wm. Hamilton.

Foot race; open to white men any age. Premium, nice, soft bosom shirt, by Louisville Store.

Bicycle race; open to boys under 14. Premium, Corbin push bicycle bell, by G. L. Penny.

Bicycle race; open to boys any age. Premium, bicycle foot pump, by Higgins & McKinney.

Sack race, in court-house yard, open to white men and boys. Premium, picture frame and foot stool, by W. W. Withers.

Enter early with George B. Wearan, clerk of the races.

Lewis & Geer will have the highest sign. They climbed up the court-house cupola last night and after letting loose old glory from the top of the lightning rod, tacked a banner beneath it with these words: "Try us for painting: what's the matter with Lewis & Geer?"

Albert A. Warren was the originator, instigator and promoter of the celebration and is in his glory over its success.
